I breathe air from a long tube called a siphon.

My nickname is “Tumbler.”

Even though I am alive and moving, I cannot eat.

I molt four times as I grow.

I am attracted to lights.

I use CO₂ and heat to find my next meal.

I can be found floating on the surface of the water.

There are up to 300 of us stuck together.

I can breathe air from a long tube called a siphon.

I am alive and moving, but I cannot eat.

I molt four times as I grow.

I am attracted to lights.

I use CO₂ and heat to find my next meal.

I can be found floating on the surface of the water.

There are up to 300 of us stuck together.